DGR: Will this company be applying for DGR (Deductible Gift Recipient) entitlement through the Australian Taxation Office? If so, there are special clauses that we will add to the "objects" in the Constitution. Please tick yes no

A deductible gift recipient (DGR) is an entity or fund that can receive tax deductible gifts. There are two types of DGR endorsement:

- An entity that has DGR endorsement in its own right
- An entity that is only a DGR in relation to a fund, authority or institution it operates. In this instance, only gifts to the fund, authority or institution are tax deductible

For further information on deductible gift recipients, visit the Making tax deductible donations page on the ATO website.

Please note that the Objects for this type of company must be drafted and presented to us for inclusion within the Constitution before registration can proceed.
